Program Agenda

General Issues in DFU and CLI

- 9:00 am to 9:10 am Welcome
- 9:10 am to 9:20 am DFU and CLI: Overview of Who, What, Why & Where
Andrew J. Meltzer, MD
Weill Cornell Medicine, New York, NY
- 9:20 am to 9:30 am Disparities: Populations at Risk for DFU and CLI & Making Outreach Work
Darren B. Schneider, MD
Weill Cornell Medicine, New York, NY
- 9:30 am to 9:40 am Optimal Evaluation of the Diabetic & CLI Foot Wound
Ernest Megdanis, MD
NewYork-Presbyterian Brooklyn Methodist Hospital, Brooklyn, NY
- 9:40 am to 9:50 am WiFi - What Is It & Why Does It Matter
Alfio Carroccio, MD
Lenox Hill Hospital, New York, NY
- 9:50 am to 10:00 am Perfusion Assessment - Vascular Evaluation in the DFU and CLI Patient
Peter Connolly, MD
Weill Cornell Medicine, New York, NY
- 10:00 am to 10:10 am Calciphylaxis & Other Special Wound Care Issues in the Dialysis Patient
Frank Liu, MD
Weill Cornell Medicine, New York, NY
- 10:10 am to 10:45 am Panel Discussion and Q&A
- 10:45 am to 11:15 am Break

Revascularization for Limb Preservation

- 11:15 am to 11:25 am An Endovascular Algorithm for Treating CLI
Rajeev Dayal, MD
NewYork-Presbyterian/Queens, Flushing, NY
- 11:25 am to 11:35 am Bypass Still Works – When “Endo 1st” Is Wrong
Marcus Dayala, MD
NewYork-Presbyterian Brooklyn Methodist Hospital, Brooklyn, NY
- 11:35 am to 11:45 am What’s Not Salvageable – When Primary Amputation Is The Right Answer
Herrick Wun, MD
Weill Cornell Medicine, New York, NY
- 11:45 am to 11:55 am Pedal and Tibial Access - When & How To Do It
Darren B. Schneider, MD
Weill Cornell Medicine, New York, NY
- 11:55 am to 12:05 pm Drug Elution and Bioresorbables for BTK Lesions - Is It The Answer?
Virendra I. Patel, MD
Columbia University Irving Medical Center, New York, NY
- 12:05 pm to 12:15 pm Strategies for Dealing with Vessel Calcification
Andrew J. Meltzer, MD

Program Objectives

This one-day multi-disciplinary conference is aimed at medical care providers involved in the care of patients suffering from the ravages of critical limb ischemia and diabetic foot complications with a focus on amputation prevention and improving patient outcomes. Through didactic sessions, our nationally recognized faculty will report on current clinical practice, new technologies and the evolving standards of care of these challenging and complex patients. Attendee participation and interaction will be emphasized with Q and A sessions, case presentations and hands-on workshops.

At the conclusion of this seminar, participants will be able to:

- Identify patients at greatest risk for the development of critical limb ischemia (CLI) and diabetic foot ulcer (DFU) and accurately diagnose CLI and DFU.
- Determine which patients with peripheral artery disease or lower extremity wounds require a lower extremity arterial revascularization procedure.
- Describe the role of various open surgical and endovascular revascularization techniques in patients with CLI and DFU.
- Implement appropriate wound care treatments for patients with CLI and DFU.
- Describe the role of various non-surgical and surgical offloading techniques for patients with CLI, DFU and Charcot foot deformities.
- Determine when patients have osteomyelitis and how to refer them for treatment.
- Identify the components necessary to build a multidisciplinary limb preservation program.

Who Should Attend

This course is directed to physicians including vascular surgeons, interventionalists, podiatrists, wound care providers, diabetologists, and other providers including residents, fellows, nurses, nurse practitioners and physician/medical assistants interested in expanding their knowledge of limb preservation.

Accreditation & Credit Designation

Weill Cornell Medical College is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Weill Cornell Medical College designates this live activity for a maximum of 8 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Disclosure Policy

It is the policy of Weill Cornell Medical College to adhere to ACCME Criteria, Policies, and Standards for Commercial Support and content validation in order to ensure fair balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all its sponsored activities. All speakers, Course Directors, Co-Course Directors, planners, reviewers, and staff members participating in sponsored activities are expected to disclose relevant financial relationships pertaining to their contribution to the activity. Relationship information is analyzed to determine whether conflicts of interest exist. All conflicts of interest are resolved prior to participation in the planning or implementation of this activity. Presenters and authors are also expected to disclose any discussion of (1) offlabel or investigational uses of FDA approved commercial products or devices or (2) products or devices not yet approved in the United States. All disclosures will be made at the time of this CME activity.
